The BEST Committee reserves the right to test and/or ultrasound any animal at a BEST Show. The BEST Committee, at its sole discretion, may test and/or ultrasound winners, at random, or upon reasonable suspicion of possible violations of any of the Ohio Livestock Show Reform Law and its related rules or other OCA BEST Rules. By participating in a BEST sanctioned show, exhibitors (BEST and non-BEST) consent to BEST committee members, OCA staff and show management entering the tents, trailers, and other areas where animals may be housed at a BEST sanctioned show, prepared for the show, or transported to or from the show.

13. Best of the Buckeye - Ohio's Premier Bred, Born & Raised Registered Steer and Heifer Youth Event

The Best of the Buckeye show will take place within the existing Ohio Beef Expo Junior Show on Sunday March 18, 2018.

All Ohio Beef Expo (OBE) and BEST rules apply to Best of the Buckeye (BOTB) exhibitors.

To be eligible for the Best of the Buckeye program, cattle must be registered and the breeder of the registered animal must pay a one-time per animal nomination fee. Animals nominated for Best of the Buckeye will also need to be entered in the Ohio Beef Expo Junior Show.

The OBE will pick the top 3 heifers and steers in each breed division for the BOTB program. BOTB placings will coincide with the show's class placings. The top 3 animals from each class will come back immediately following the breed's final drive to show for the BOTB final drive.

To receive awards, animals must be shown by their owner. An exception is made if the Best of the Buckeye participant owns two or more animals that are in the same class. In this scenario another junior exhibiting at the Ohio Beef Expo may exhibit the second animal and the participant would still be eligible for awards with both animals.

Cattle can be nominated prior to the Ohio Beef Expo by March 1, 2018 at a $25 per head nomination fee. After March 1, 2018, breeders can nominate cattle through check-in at the Ohio Beef Expo on Saturday, March 17, 2018 at an increased late nomination fee of $75 per head. (Cattle showing in both of the BOTB shows, Expo and the Ohio State Fair, may pay a one-time nomination fee of $40 by March 1, 2018.)

OCA Best of the Buckeye breeder and exhibitor nomination forms along with Best of the Buckeye rules and information are posted on the Ohio Cattlemen's Association website www.ohiocattle.org under the Youth tab.

14. Showmanship:

The showmanship competition will be held at noon on Saturday March 17, 2018. Two different age divisions will be evaluated simultaneously. The judge in one ring will evaluate two divisions, while the judge in the other ring will evaluate three age divisions. Beginner will start in one ring, followed by Intermediate. Junior will start in the second ring, followed by Novice. Seniors will show in whichever ring finishes first.

Showmanship will be ungroomed. The participant's age on January 1, 2018 is used to determine age division. Anyone who has reached 22 years of age before 1/1/2018 is ineligible to compete. Age divisions will be: Beginner Division 10 and under, Junior Division 11-13, Intermediate Division 14-16, Senior Division 17-21, and the Novice Division for first or second year BEST participants ages 11-16. BEST participants ages 11-16 may choose to show in their specified age division with other participants or they can participate in the Novice Division where only first or second year BEST participants will be competing. Showmanship participants will only be allowed to compete in one showmanship division. (i.e. - an 11 year-old BEST participant eligible for the Novice division may not compete in the Junior and Novice showmanship divisions. They must choose one division.)

Participants must show their own animal and that animal must be entered in the show. Participants who make the final cut(s) must show the same animal that they showed in their heat.

The show committee may randomly break showmanship age divisions into multiple heats as needed. Exhibitors must show in that posted heat.

Showmanship sign-up is completed through the online show entry and must be completed by the close of check-in on Saturday.

Exhibitors will be required to wear a back number for showmanship.

The limit on the number of times an exhibitor's animal can get loose in showmanship is two. If it gets loose a third time, the exhibitor will be excused from competition. The class will be considered "final" when the judge begins speaking on the microphone. If an animal gets loose during the judge's comments it will not count against the exhibitor.

Exhibitors must enter their class on time. Exhibitors arriving late to their assigned class will be ineligible to participate in the class and will be dismissed. When the first animal in the class walks, all late animals will be ineligible to enter the ring.

15. No Health Certificates Required:

No health certificates will be required for steers or heifers in the 2018 junior show. The Expo show committee reserves the right to excuse cattle showing visible signs of communicable disease.

16. Committee Decisions:

The OCA Ohio Beef Expo Junior Show Committee has the final decision on all issues pertaining to the show. Issues will be reviewed on a case by case basis and the committee does reserve the right to dismiss individuals from the show. The OCA Junior Show is not responsible for accidents. Protests or complaints must be presented by exhibitor and/or immediate family member of exhibitor.
